BULLETIN • Volume LXX • Number 1 (Catalog) – The Bulletin (USPS #019855) of North Central Texas College is normally published six times per year—twice for Fall, three times for Spring and once for Summer; however, this schedule is subject to change to coincide with changes in the college calendar. This and all other official NCTC publications are published by the staff of the Office of Marketing & Public Relations. Periodical postage paid at Gainesville, Texas.

NOTICE: All information printed in this edition of the Bulletin of North Central Texas College is subject to change by the Board of Regents and Administration. Every effort is made to make the information contained herein as complete and accurate as possible; however, changes may occur at any time in requirements, deadlines, fees, curricula, courses listed/offered and times offered. Course numbers and descriptions may change from previous Bulletins/Schedules/Catalogs, and such changes will be on record in the offices of the Vice President of Instruction, the Instructional Deans, Vice President of Student Services and Dean of Financial Services.

This We Believe...

Statement of Core Values

At North Central Texas College, we cherish our responsibility to change the lives of students in a positive and meaningful way. Inspired by a rich heritage and motivated by the promise of a dynamic future, we are guided by the following organizational values...

Relationships

Connecting with colleagues, caring about individuals and cultivating the personal touch in interactions with students, with each other and with those in our communities as we strive to meet their needs.

Quality

Fostering excellence, innovation and continuous improvement both inside and outside the classroom to ensure the highest level of accountability, professionalism, and academic and ethical standards.

Access

Ensuring that educational opportunities are readily available and affordable for students with diverse needs and backgrounds.

Discernment

Embracing change – through continuing personal and professional growth – to better teach, reach and serve students, colleagues and communities.

Collaboration

Promoting meaningful involvement and participation by all members of the college family in institutional planning, management and effectiveness.

Celebration

Pursing our passion with intensity and joy.
