We are pleased that you have chosen to apply for admission to North Central Texas College. Please remember that being admitted to NCTC does NOT guarantee admission to certain specific programs of study offered by the college (Nursing, for example). Such highly specialized programs usually have additional qualification requirements, and applicants should consult the Division/Department Director or a college counselor for details.

Read and follow the instructions below to complete your application for admission to the college:

1. Type or print clearly and legibly, and answer every question to avoid a delay in processing your application.
2. Submit required OFFICIAL transcript(s) along with this application form.
3. Submit proof of TASP status—either official TASP scores or an official college transcript bearing TASP scores.
