Course Competencies

At the completion of the course the student should be able to:

Comprehension

- I. Apply comprehension strategies to construct a text's meaning.
  1. Apply active reading strategies (i.e. SQ3R) to comprehend a written work's purpose and meaning and to develop a strategy for studying textbooks.
  2. Identify and analyze explicit textual information for improved comprehension.
  3. Analyze implicit textual information.
  4. Identify and analyze the purpose and tone of a text.
  5. Distinguish between fact and opinion and explain how an author uses both to create meaning and purpose.
  6. Analyze an author's argument for effectiveness.

Vocabulary

- II. Apply a variety of vocabulary strategies to determine the meaning of unknown words.
  1. Comprehend new words and concepts through study of their relationships to other words and concepts.
  2. Apply knowledge of roots and affixes to infer the meanings of new words.
  3. Use reference guides (dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses, etc.) to confirm the meanings of new words or concepts.

Fluency

- III. Increase reading rate and lexile level (reading level) through repeated practice readings.
  1. Students will increase lexile level to 1290 or above (reading level of 11.9).

Phonological Awareness

- IV. Apply phonological awareness strategies (word families, syllabication, phonetic rules) to decode unknown words.

Attendance Policy

Regular and punctual attendance is expected of all students in all College Prep classes for which they have registered. There are NO excused absences. After 3 hours of absenteeism (missing class is 1 ½ hours, not logging on weekly to ANGEL/MyReadingLab is 1 ½ hours), a student may be warned and referred to the College Preparatory Studies Director. When a student has been absent from class or fails to log in to ANGEL/MyReadingLab for a total of 6 hours, the student may be dropped. Being dropped from a College Prep course for non-attendance may result in being dropped from all remaining courses this semester. Inform the instructor in writing during the first week of class of any religious holidays observed this semester. Documentation must be given to the instructor at the class following the holiday.

Class Rules

1. Turn off all electronic devices prior to entering class.
2. Do not read or send text messages during class.
3. Be courteous to your instructor and fellow classmates.
4. Maintain a positive and professional attitude.
5. Ask questions, get involved, and do your homework.

Graded Homework and Late Work Policies

This course is designed to enable students to develop reading skills for college. Students who successfully develop reading skills do each assignment conscientiously and turn their work in on time. If you are absent, you are responsible for finding out what assignments you missed.

Graded homework assignments cannot be made up or turned in late for any reason. Graded homework with feedback will be returned one class period from the time it was due. Projects/tests will be returned within 10 days.

Tests cannot be made up without prior arrangements or a doctor's note. Make-up tests must be taken within 5 days of the original test date and will receive a lower grade (5 pts off for each calendar day).

Late projects will be accepted only up to 5 days after the due date, and all late projects will receive a lower grade (5 pts off for each calendar day).

No late work of any kind will be accepted the last week of classes (the week before finals).

THEA Compliance

If you did not pass the THEA test, or other approved test, in Reading, or Writing, or Mathematics, you will be required to complete a College Prep course EVERY SEMESTER (including summers) until you complete the College Prep course sequence or provide passing test scores.

Scholastic Integrity

Scholastic dishonesty shall include, but not be limited to cheating on a test, plagiarism, and collusion. See Student Handbook "Student Rights & Responsibilities: Student Conduct [FLB-(LOCAL)]" #18. Student violations of this policy will be reported to the appropriate Dean.

ADA Statement

North Central Texas College does not discriminate on the basis of disability for admission or access to its programs. The College is committed to providing equal access to its students with disabilities by providing appropriate accommodations; a variety of services and resources are made available through the ACCESS Department. Students are responsible for notifying the ACCESS Department of their need for assistance. Students with documented disabilities, such as mobility impairment, hearing or visual impairment, learning, and/or psychological disorders are eligible for services.

ACCESS Program:

The ACCESS Program provides accommodations for students who have a documented disability. A disability is anything that can interfere with learning, such as a learning disability, psychological challenge or physical illness or injury. Accommodations may include extra time on tests, tests in a non-distracting environment, note taker in class, etc. On the Corinth Campus, contact: Robin Truhe (rtruhe@nctc.edu, 940-498-6207) or Penny Cogbill (pcogbill@nctc.edu, 940-498-6212) or Nicole Walton (nwalton@nctc.edu, 940-498-6224 in Suite 170.
