LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Students who successfully complete English 2332 will be able to:

1. Identify authors, titles, major and minor characters, place names, details, and short quotations from the works studied, as well as significant events, places, and historical figures from the earliest periods of literature to the present.
2. Define literary terms discussed in class, along with terms from world history, various cultures, and languages.
3. Describe in some detail and discuss perceptively literary, historic and cultural periods, movements, philosophies, or techniques as covered in the readings and lectures.
4. Demonstrate an understanding of the works studied by correctly answering examination questions and/or writing essays or reports.
5. Demonstrate critical thinking and effective academic writing skills in essays or research papers.
6. Conduct scholarly research using print, electronic media, and Internet sources; apply ethical standards to the use of their research findings; scrupulously avoid plagiarism; and utilize MLA style of documentation.

All Learning Objectives are incorporated into each of the following UNITS OF STUDY:

Block I: Selected readings.

Block II: Discussions and minor projects.

Block III: Major analytical research project utilizing library and electronic resources and resulting in an essay of at least 1,500 words following the MLA style of documentation.

SCHOLASTIC INTEGRITY: Scholastic dishonesty shall include, but not be limited to cheating on a test, plagiarism, and collusion. See Student Handbook "Student Rights & Responsibilities: Student Conduct [FLB- (LOCAL)]" #18. Disciplinary Actions [Student Handbook, p. 164, #5] "When cheating, collusion, or plagiarism has occurred beyond any reasonable doubt, the instructor may give the student or students involved an "F" on a particular assignment or in the course. [See Scholastic Dishonesty FLB (Local)] The instructor shall make a written report of the incident and of the planned action to his Department Chair. The Department Chair shall report the incident and action to appropriate instructional dean who shall review the case, notify the student and, if necessary, take further action. This may involve either probation or suspension of the student or students in question. If such disciplinary action is deemed necessary, the Dean of Student Services shall be notified, and the action shall be taken through that office."

ADA STATEMENT: North Central Texas College does not discriminate on the basis of disability for admission or access to its programs. The College is committed to providing equal access to its students with disabilities by providing appropriate accommodations; a variety of services and resources are made available through the ACCESS Department. Students are responsible for notifying the ACCESS Department of their need for assistance.
